

28th January 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Freedom Coaches have now run the school bus for a month but unfortunately the take up has been far too low to cover their costs and numbers are showing no signs of increasing. Freedom have been providing the service at a considerable loss to themselves which they cannot sustain and so reluctantly will be withdrawing the service from the 1st February.

The bus will therefore run this week commencing 28th January and the last day of service will be Friday 1st February.

Should circumstances change and significantly higher numbers of students commit to the service, Freedom will re-look at a school run. In the meantime, all parents and carers will need to make alternative arrangements to come to school.

Yours sincerely

Marie Lane
